Citation procedure for nuisance-grade offenses

ANC1D advises that the Council consider the possibility of implementing an offense-citation procedure for dealing with nuisance-grade offenses.

why:

Persuasion and education efforts could be supplemented by a “citation” procedure for dealing with nuisance-grade offenses. This amounts to issuing a “ticket” for offenses, comparable to a ticket for illegal parking, or minor traffic offenses. The penalty would be modest, but would serve as a deterrent to nuisance activities. This approach would be far less costly in police resources than arrest, detention, and charging.

Passed by 4 to 0 vote, with one abstention, at the legally noticed, public meeting of ANC1D on April 20, 2010, with a quorum present. Voting “yes”: Commissioners Edwards, Scott, Bosserman, McKay. Abstaining: Commissioner Lepanto.
